Cookies and Webforms

Like any other website, Hometour uses 'cookies'. These cookies are used to store information including visitors' preferences, and the pages on the website that the visitor accessed or visited. The information is used to optimize the users' experience by customizing our web page content based on visitors' browser type and/or other information.

Hometour uses webform templates on this site. These forms require users to give contact information like the name, surname, email and phone number. Contact information from the registration form is used only to send material relating to the [event/course/purpose/free trial] for which it was collected and will not be sold to another party.

Use of Collected Data

Hometour will only use personal information collected from this site for the purpose of communication back to individuals who contact us via the site. Hometour uses browser-IP-address information and anonymous-browser history to report information about site accesses and for profiling purposes. This information is used to improve Web presentation and utilization. IP address information may also be used for troubleshooting purposes. Data also is collected to allow the owner to provide its services, as well as for the following purposes: Analytics.

Distribution of Collected Data

Hometour will not disclose, without your consent, personal information collected about you, except for certain explicit circumstances in which disclosure is required by law.

Hometour will not distribute or sell personal information to third-party organizations.

Third Party Privacy Policies

Hometour website may contain links to other web sites. Some of those web sites may be operated by third parties. We provide the links for your convenience, but we do not review, control, or monitor the privacy practices of web sites operated by others.

We are not responsible for the performance of web sites operated by third parties or for your business dealings with them. Therefore, whenever you leave this web site we recommend that you review each web site's privacy practices and make your own conclusions regarding the adequacy of these practices.

Children's Information

Another part of our priority is adding protection for children while using the internet. We encourage parents and guardians to observe, participate in, and/or monitor and guide their online activity.

Hometour does not knowingly collect any Personal Identifiable Information from children under the age of thirteen (13) years old. If you think that your child provided this kind of information on our website, we strongly encourage you to contact us immediately and we will do our best efforts to promptly remove such information from our records.

Online Privacy Policy Only

This Privacy Policy applies only to our online activities and is valid for visitors to our website with regards to the information that they shared and/or collect in Hometour. This policy is not applicable to any information collected online or via channels other than this website.

Changes to the Privacy Policy

Hometour reserves the right to make changes to this privacy policy at any time by giving notice to its users on this page and possibly within this application and/or - as far as technically and legally feasible - sending a notice to users via any contact information available to the company. It is strongly recommended to check this page often, referring to the date of the last modification listed at the top.

Should the changes affect processing activities performed on the basis of the User's consent, the Owner shall collect new consent from the User, where required.

Consent

By using our website, you hereby consent to our Privacy Policy and agree to its Terms and Conditions.
